

FEBRUARY 4, 2019 - FOX RESIDENTIAL GROUP IN THE NEWS

Fox Residential Group Celebrates its 30th Anniversary

Premier Privately-owned Boutique Brokerage Welcomes its Third Decade at the Top

Barbara Fox

Fox Residential Group announces its 30th anniversary as a specialist in the sale of exclusive cooperative and condominium residences, townhouses, and luxury rentals throughout Manhattan and Brooklyn. Founded in 1989 by Barbara Fox, the eponymous boutique brokerage, with offices at 14 East 60th Street in the Plaza District, is considered one of the most respected names in the industry; heralded for its exclusive clientele and the strong ethical comportment of its brokerage team.

“This is a really notable milestone for us,” says Barbara Fox, the firm’s president. “I am so proud of our growth from a handful of brokers, most of whom are still here. We opened in the middle of an economic downturn and held steady. Today, we continue to prosper as a close-knit group of experienced and skilled professionals.”

Among the few remaining privately-owned residential real estate firms in New York City, Fox Residential Group has maintained its prominence and exclusive stature through the expertise and professionalism of its agents, long-standing relationships with buyers and sellers, and unimpeachable reputation. The firm is additionally recognized for its creative marketing and Ms. Fox’s active participation in many of its transactions.